

Santa Barbara Latino CINEMEDIA Festival PRESENTS:

indigenous cinema

NATIVE AMERICAN WOMEN & FILMMAKING

SATURDAY, APRIL 17
SANTA BARBARA
MUSEUM OF ART / 11AM
MARY CRAIG AUDITORIUM
THIS EVENT IS FREE!

Co-presented by the UCSB Center for Chicano Studies.

For a Festival catalogue and to purchase tickets, call UCSB Arts & Lectures at 805-893-3535.

www.sblatinofilm.com

Poster design by Osiris Castañeda 2004

The screening of the films will be followed by a round table discussion with Native American women filmmakers focusing on the unique challenges they confront to tell their stories. Moderated by Mario A. Caro, UCSB Center for Chicano Studies

Nora Naranjo-Morse (Santa Clara Pueblo)
Clay Beings (2003, 29 min.)

Yolanda Cruz (Chatino)
Entre Sueños (2000, 6 min.)

Zoe Leigh Hopkins (Heiltsuk/Mohawk)
Prayer for a Good Day (2004, 15 min.)

Shelley Niro (Mohawk)
The Shirt (2003, 5 min.)

Sandra Osawa (Makah)
Pepper's Pow Wow (1999, 29 min.)

Monique Sonoquie (Chumash, Apache, Zapotec) The Beginning of the Chumash (2004, 4 min.)

Other Native American films screening in the festival are:

Cedar Sherbert (Kumeyaay)
Memory (2004, 15 min.)

Eric Frith 49? (2003, 5 min.)

THE FUND FOR SANTA BARBARA

THE SANTA BARBARA
Independent
The County's News and Entertainment Paper

TintaLatina
LATININK

Santa Barbara County
Arts Commission

MAZA
Artists Collective

