

Name of you:

Writing Workshop Worksheet

Monday, Week 4

please write legibly

1. Please draw a picture of the toy you used for your structure in the box at right.
2. What specific aspects of your writing were guided by the structure of the toy?

3. If the piece you wrote were a piece of music, what would it be like?
4. Every structure seems to offer certain possibilities and problems once you start filling them in with ideas. What were some of the possibilities and problems that your chosen structure presented?
5. You may have already done this. But, in today's critique, I want you to have someone other than the author read each piece out loud before you discuss it.